

Looking back to the framework of INTERREG IIIB: The transnational programme CADSES & Danubian projects

Andrea Rainer Cerovská

Austrian Conference on Spatial Planning / National Contact Point

Transnational pilot-workshop „Cross-programme ETC Danube projects“

Vienna, 28-29 September 2009

BUNDESKANZLERAMT ÖSTERREICH

CONTACT POINT AUSTRIA

CADSES HISTORY

CADSES I (1997-1999)

CADSES II (2000-2006)

BUNDESKANZLERAMT ÖSTERREICH

CONTACT POINT AUSTRIA

INTERREG IIIB CADSES Neighbourhood Programme 2000-2006

CADSES

Central European Adriatic
Danubian
South-Eastern
European Space

Priorities:

1. Spatial development
2. Transport & IT
3. Natural & cultural heritage
4. Environment

INTERREG IIIB CADSES Neighbourhood Programme 2000-2006

CADSES Framework (I)

- 18 countries involved (9 EU-member states, 9 non EU-member states)
- ERDF funds: 153 million € (cofinancing rate: 50 / 75 %)
- Involvement of non EU-member states under the framework of Neighbourhood Policy of the EU (coordination of ERDF, PHARE, CARDS, TACIS)
- Joint management structures: Managing Authority (Rome), Paying Authority (Rome), Joint Technical Secretariat (Dresden), National Contact Points, 2 Transnational Contact Points (Vienna, Athens)
- Lead Partner principle

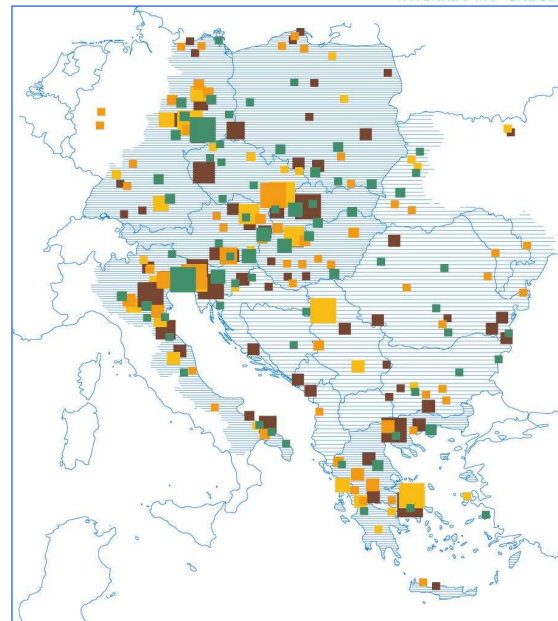

INTERREG IIIB CADSES Neighbourhood Programme 2000-2006

CADSES Framework (II)

- 134 projects funded
- transsectoral partnerships (no restrictions regarding the legal status of PPs)
- 1614 institutions involved in the implementation, incl. 534 private institutions
- involvement of all states covered by the Programme area

INTERREG IIIB CADSES Neighbourhood Programme 2000-2006

CADSES and Danubian projects

- 134 projects funded, out of them
- 32 under Priority 4 (Environment)
 - 21 dealing with the term WATER
 - 5 working on the topic RIVER
 - 5 dealing explicitly within the DANUBE area (all 5 projects present at this workshop)

Thank you!

National Contact Point Austrian Conference on Spatial Planning

DI Martina Bach
Mag.^a Kathrin Gruber
Mag. (FH) Andrea Rainer Cerovská

<http://www.oerok.gv.at/contact-point.html>